Register now to be apart of the Greater Dandenong Chamber Business Awards!

The Awards Program is open to all businesses located in the Greater Dandenong area and provides recognition for outstanding business achievements and community contributions.

These events provide a unique opportunity to promote your brand and engage with local business communities like never before.

If you have a great business story, and are located in the Greater Dandenong area, consider nominating yourself for an award. Alternatively, if you know of an outstanding business in the area, show your support for local business excellence by nominating a business you know and respect.

Registrations for 2022 are now open, and you can register by filling out the online form here.

Become a member of the Chamber today!

We offer the opportunity to meet other local business people, in a region well served by business groups that cover a vast and ever-growing range of industries.

The chamber facilitates its members to:

- network with other local business people
- celebrate the success of local businesses through our Business Awards program
- connect with the local community
- contribute to the vitality and growth of Greater Dandenong
- connect with local and state government
- continue to learn and grow by providing member-only resources
